Every Day

I work · she works · do and does

One small letter. I work. You work. We work. They work. But he works and she works. In a question the s moves: Does she work? Pick your language at the top for a note in your own words.

★ see the two forms · ★★ build it, and her day · ★★★ choose the verb, then fix the sentence

★ I work. She works.

Look at the two boxes. Say every sentence out loud. Your language is under every line.

I · YOU · WE · THEYwork

The verb never changes.

I WORK at night. 🗣️You WORK at night. 🗣️They WORK at night. 🗣️HE · SHE · IT*works

Add s to the verb.

He WORKS at night. 🗣️She WORKS at night. 🗣️My sister WORKS at night. 🗣️

★★ How to build it

One verb, three subjects. Only the s changes.

he · she · it + verb + s

I wake up at 6:00. 🎧

She wakes up at 6:00. 🎧

They wake up at 6:00. 🎧

I ----- work 🎧

You ----- work 🎧

We ----- work 🎧

They ----- work 🎧

He/She/It ----- works 🎧

Four subjects use the same word. Only he, she and it add the s.

★★ Her day

She wakes up.

★★ Ask a question: do and does

Two ways to ask. Look at the subject first.

Class 8 taught Do you have a car? Now use it with every verb.

Do

I · you · we · they

DO you eat breakfast at home? 🎧

Does

he · she · it

DOES she eat breakfast at home? 🎧

She works at night. 🎧 → Does she work at night? 🎧

Put the s on does. The verb has no s.

What do you do in the evening? 🎧

The first do makes the question. The second do is the verb.
