Olga's Poem

Olga is writing a poem. Read. Clap the beats of the poem.

Olga is a student in Room 5. She is from Ukraine. She is a nurse, too. Today the class is writing poems. Mr. Tyler is the teacher.

This is Olga's poem.

The class is quiet.

We are counting all the beats.

I am not alone.

Mr. Tyler is reading the poem. The students are clapping the beats. Five, seven, five. Olga is happy. "I am a poet!"

Citizen life: on the citizenship test, you read one sentence. You write one sentence, too.

★ Write the missing word

Write the missing word. Then type it in the chat.

- 1 Olga is from _____.
- 2 The class is _____.
- 3 We are counting all the _____.
- 4 I am not _____.

★★ Count it

Read again. Count the lines and the beats.

- 1 How many lines are in the poem?

- 2 How many beats are in line 2?

- 3 Who is reading the poem?

- 4 What are the students doing?

- 5 Is Olga a nurse?

★★★ Two lines about you

Now YOU. Two lines about you, with am and am not.

I am _____. I am not _____.

Like this: I am tired. I am not alone. 🗣️ I am a student. I am not a poet. 🗣️

Write two short lines about you. Type them in the chat.
