1 City Words WORDS

IN CLASS

project ★, point at a picture, everyone says the word together. Then "type the word for picture 7 in the chat", and twelve answers arrive at once. For ★★★, one student reads their sentence out loud before anybody types, and the rest type theirs. Nobody's block is wrong.

No key.

2 City Sprint WORDS

A game, played on the screen. No key.

3 Next To, Across From, Between GRAMMAR

IN CLASS

put the map on the screen and read number 1 together. "The pharmacy is BLANK the bank." Everyone types the missing words in the chat. The argument to have out loud is next to or across from, and the answer to watch for is in front of.

No key.

4 Build It: Where Is It? GRAMMAR

share this and leave the map up. Say "Marie, build one." She calls out her words and you tap them. Then ask the room: "next to, or across from? Argue." Next: "Now use between." The second box opens on the screen and the class sees why one place is not enough. Finish with the fight worth having: build There are two banks next to the library, ask "Is that good English? Is it true?" and let them find the answer on the map. · ➡ On paper: circle one word in each column, then write your sentence.

No key.

5 The Neighborhood Map REAL WORLD

IN CLASS

share the map and leave it up. Say "Find the pharmacy. What is across from it?" Twelve students type one answer each in the chat, so you see twelve at once and you know who is reading the map. Then number 4: two answers are right, and the argument to have out loud is why a corner holds more than one building.

No key.

A game, played on the screen. No key.

7 Mamadou's Street READ

IN CLASS

"Look at the story. I read it once. Now read it with me." Then: "Number 1 — put your answer in the chat." Twelve answers arrive at once. For ★★★, read three of the students' own sentences out loud before anyone else types.

No key.

8 Excuse Me, Where Is It? LISTEN

IN CLASS

play the whole scene once with the script hidden and Share sound on. "Number 1 — What is Pedro looking for? Tap it." Play it again. Then Show the script, read it in two voices with the room, and point out the short forms. For ★★★, play one line at a time. Now you has no key.

ANSWER KEY

★ Listen: a post office · Yes, there is. ★★ Listen and read: the bank · the park · on the corner of Nostrand Avenue · between the bank and the library ★★★ Listen and write: across · corner · between.
